Successful business owner and founder of Jane Out of the Box, Michele DeKinder-Smith, to present keynote speech to Women Business Owners.

July 1, 2009, Houston, Texas: Michele DeKinder-Smith, Founder & CEO of Jane Out of the Box, has conducted research for Fortune 500 companies for nearly 20 years. Now, she's brought her passion for entrepreneurship and extensive research experience together to create Jane Out of the Box, which conducts research for and about women business owners in order to help more women become successful on their own terms.

Having grown her first business to over a million dollars in revenue, Michele was inspired to start Jane Out of the Box, to help other women create the wealth and the lifestyles they deserve.

Hear Michele at the Women Business Owners "Wild About Business" Convention presented by Office Max, Inc. in Houston, Texas on October 22-24, 2009. Take the opportunity to join 500 women entrepreneurs from around the world as they experience a convention of networking, workshops, and a live business expo.

Join WBO attendees as they kick-off this year's convention with business socializing and keynote speakers during the semi-formal reception at the Houston Marriott North at Greenspoint on Thursday, October 22nd. Register today online at www.womenbizowners.org/convention.

Attendees to the convention will continue building their business with live, hands-on interaction with each of our panelist-led workshops and keynote speakers on Friday at the Humble Civic Center. Each three-day attendee will have the opportunity to showcase their business during the Business Expo (open to the public) on Saturday at the Humble Civic Center!

For more information about becoming a sponsor, vendor, speaker or attendee at WBO's upcoming convention, contact Cindy Clark, cindy@womenbizowners.org or call 877-209-9461, ext 708.
